

FPAB

ASET Project Summary

Introduction:

ASET project will contribute to improve SRH education in school by increasing teachers' skills on sexuality communication and mobilizing stakeholders for youth friendly SRHR education. The project will also review NCTB and teachers' training curriculum and arrange dialogue with them to make necessary correction to make them acceptable by the teachers, parents and others. Training for project staffs and orientation meeting for stakeholders will be arranged to achieve objective of the project.

Project duration:

1st January 2014 to 31st December 2016

Donor:

RFSU The Swedish Association for Sexuality Education, Sweden

Goal:

Adolescents and young people are empowered to make informed choices and decisions to enjoy mutually satisfying & safe relationship, free from coercion or violence without fear of infection or pregnancy.

Specific objective:

1. Improved quality of NCTB textbooks and teachers' training curriculum.
2. Improved capacity of teachers on sexuality communication.
3. Stakeholders are supportive to SRHR education.

Implementation areas:

Bogra and Rajshahi District

Activities:

- Activity 1.1: Train Master Trainers on SRHR advocacy
- Activity 1.2: Meeting with stakeholders and form curriculum review committee
- Activity 1.3: Meeting of review committee
- Activity 1.4: Dialogue with NCTB and National University
- Activity 2.1: Develop teachers training manual and materials
- Activity 2.2: Print/procure training manual and materials
- Activity 2.3: Training of teachers
- Activity 2.4: Purchase computer for school resource centres.
- Activity 3.1: Dialogue with public representatives
- Activity 3.2: Dialogue with government officials
- Activity 3.3: Dialogue with teachers and management committee
- Activity 3.4: Dialogue with media people
- Activity 3.5: Training of Community Advocate
- Activity 3.6: Community advocacy meeting
- Activity 3.7: Quarterly network meeting with GO/NGOs
- Activity 3.8: Youth fair